

MORNING APPEAL.

Sunday.....January 9 1897.

TREAT THEM FAIRLY.

The Reno Gazette seems to fear that Ormsby will retaliate upon Washoe.

During the past week, a delegation of straight Republicans--Messrs. Boardman, Thompson, McInnis and Rolf, have been asking that the club of vengeance be stayed in behalf of Washoe. They urged that the taking away of appropriations for the county would simply be playing into the hands of the Muskumps of Washoe, and weakening the straight Republican forces. There is good logic in this.

The Ormsby Republicans; strong, victorious and united, do not need to be revenged, and everything should be done to place strong party backing behind the defeated Republicans who stood up in the fight in Washoe last Fall. A demand for justice, coming from such men, ought not to be denied. The bill to annex the old State Prison grounds to the Lunatic Asylum grounds ought to satisfy Carson. It will end the long wrangle over the State Prison, which has encumbered Legislation here for years, and really gave Pawning the only hold he ever had in Washoe county.

Let the Legislature give the Agricultural Society of Reno the appropriation it needs and ought to have, together with such appropriations as ought to go to the Asylum and University. We cannot retard the prosperity and progress of any county in Nevada because of the treachery of a few men in politics, who, from this on, are so dead as never to command a passing notice from anybody.

A FE MALE CONTORTIONIST.

A Douglas County Girl Tied in a Knot.

The Genoa Courier publishes the following: The other morning at a well known farm house in the valley the hired man and two of the farmer's sons were competing ardently with each other on the barn floor to ascertain who could put one of his heels around his neck. The boys said they had seen a man in a circus put both his heels around his neck at once. Strange, indeed if they could not get one around. So they heaved and strained to accomplish the feat. Little did they know that the hired girl was watching the performance with breathless interest through a knot-hole in the barn. A few hours later the hired girl was missing. After yelling to her a dozen times with no response a search was instituted. She was not in the house neither was she in the barn. The searching party repaired to the milk house. There was the girl, prostrate on the floor, with both heels around her neck, and utterly unable to get them loose. She was so upset that she said she would have died before calling for help.

THE U. P.'S GREETING.

What Mr. Sherman Says of the Reduced Rates.

U. P. PASSENGER DEP'T. }
SALT LAKE CITY.

To the newspapers of Utah, Idaho, Wyoming and Nevada:

The Union Pacific Railway will greet its patrons January 1, 1897, with a general reduction of rates all along their line. More especially has the knife been unsparingly applied to the rates on the Idaho, Wyoming and Salt Lake and Western divisions. Rates heretofore figured on the basis 6, 7 and 8 cents per mile are reduced to five cents. Commercial, mileage, through, local, round trip, theatrical, baggage and excursion, rates are all correspondingly reduced.

The day of high passenger rates in the inter-mountain country has gone by. New rate sheets are being prepared and will be put into effect at once.

Wishing you all a happy and prosperous New Year, I am,

Yours truly,
HOYT SHERMAN, JR.,
General Agent Passenger and Ticket Department.

At the last Legislature a law was passed changing the election of the Warden to the second Wednesday of the session. This will make the Senator Tuesday and the Warden Wednesday.

The San Francisco Morning

Call of January 7th, says: The Republican members of the Nevada Legislature have nominated William M. Stewart for the seat in the Senate which will become vacant by the expiration of Senator Fair's term on the third of March. Mr. Stewart was the candidate in view when the Legislature was elected, and his election was regarded as a matter of course when it became known that the Republicans had a majority. Mr. Stewart, like his colleague, Senator Jones, is a solid silver man.
